Improving and maintaining soil quality is essential to the productivity of land for current and future use. Nebraska Extension’s Physical, Chemical, and Biological Properties of Soil Clinic on August 26, 2015 will provide hands-on training. The in-field training is ideal for agribusiness professionals and those who work with soil management.

Other Crop Management Diagnostic Clinic sessions include:

- July 14 - Precision Ag Training
- July 15 - Mid-Summer CMDC Training
- August 27 - Late Season CMDC Training
